

Book Club!

This HyperDoc will be your source for inspiration, exploration, experimentation, and creation while reading and getting ready to present your novel to the class with your book club.

	<h2>Engage</h2>
	1) Watch this funny, introductory video on when book club will be held.

	<h2>Explore</h2>
	2) Let's begin our journey by exploring books you may want to read with your book club and ways you may want to complete your final presentation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A) Meet the Book - A Google Slides Presentation</li> <li>B) Take a look at one of my latest favorites: Refugee and I can't help but share another: Refugee by Alan Gratz</li> <li>C) Fever 1793 Book Trailer Example: This video will not only provide you with information about the book but will also show you what a book trailer presentation can look like.</li> <li>D) Bring the HEAT to your book presentation! Watch this Edpuzzle video on how to do just that.</li> </ul> 3) I want to know what you are interested in reading with your book club. Please complete this Google Form.

	<h2>Explain</h2>
	3) Let us begin by learning what you should be doing in book club.

- A) Individual Information Sheets - A how-to on getting ready for book club throughout the week.
- B) Friday Group Slides - A how-to on what you should be discussing in your book club on Fridays.
- C) Presentations - How we pick presentations, what you could use to help you present, and what we will be looking for.

Apply

5) Create a meme after your first Friday book club describing how you feel about the book club. Use this site! You will be sharing it with our class.

Here is mine for inspiration! (Please remember our classroom rules. We do not hit, but please take others into consideration and read your book according to the calendar you agreed upon.)

6) Complete your Individual Information Sheet. This is located in your Book Club workbook.

7) Complete your Friday Group Slides together as a club. Make sure you make a copy every week and share it with your club so you can collaborate (work together) in class on the slides.

8) Draw your favorite scene from the book using Google Drawings. Here is an example. It does not need to be perfect. You can also use this drawing in your final presentation.

9) At the end of the quarter, you will complete a presentation with your group. Presentations were explained above, but here is your "choice sheet". Remember there are many other options and sites to use. Talk to your teacher about using something new and different. Ideas are located here. Here is the presentation rubric that will be used.

Share

10) Share your meme - When you finish making your meme post it on our Padlet wall.

padlet

Melissa Durant · 3m

1st Week of Book Club!

Create a meme after your first Friday book club describing how you feel about book club. Post your meme on this padlet.

Melissa Durant · 6m

Book Club Members!

We may not always agree, but we must show respect to one another.

TRYING TO SMILE

★★★★★ (1) RATE

Melissa Durant · 7m

READ YOUR BOOK!

Please remember that we made a calendar as a club. You need to follow it!

I FORGOT TO READ THIS WEEK! WE MADE A CALENDAR!

★★★★★ (1) RATE

	11) Take a picture of yourself with your book club book and share it on our Book Club Selfie Padlet. 12) Share your presentation materials on Google Classroom under the assignment section. If you completed a hands-on project please take pictures of it and share them!
--	---

	<h2>Reflect</h2>
	13) Post in our google classroom one thing you liked about your book. 14) At the end of each quarter, you need to complete a graphic organizer with your group and a short writing assignment independently. These assignments are located here in a Google Doc. They can also be found in your Book Club workbook.

	<h2>Extend</h2>
	Extra Credit Opportunity - Make a video of yourself reading your favorite passage from the book and explaining why it is your favorite part using Flipgrid! Here is the link! Go the extra mile! Create a blog discussing the books you read this year. Use Google Sites to create your blog. Here is a video to show you how to complete this task. Here is a great teacher book blog! These books are on my reading list. Here is a link to our classroom website. It is a great class resource. You can also find valuable links under the "About Me - Favorite Websites" section.